*1935 Peggy + Jane driving down to visit an island in the Potomac + taking Father with them as far as Louis

19

APRIL 15

19 This morning as I woke up there was a crow cawing just outside the window - Stuck my head out and scared him out of the littlepear tree Nextdoor Eustis.

19

19

19

19

APRIL 16

19 A sunny day but quite cold. a few flakes of snow about 10 o'clock to night

19

19

19

19

APRIL 17

19 There was enough snow to whiten the ground early this morning but disappeared very quickly.

19 Helen + I had a grand dinner with Robert + a good time talking afterwards.

19

19 Easter Sunday – to Chapel + Church – dinner with the de Bhiks a lovely walk – Father arrived in time for supper

19

19 A beautiful day but none too warm

19

19

19

19

APRIL 19

19 Had the surprise of a lifetime when I came home & found a check for $2.00 from the New Yorker for "Two Holes" - will probably never happen again.

19

19 31 Mrs. McKelvy called to say that Peggy & J. were arriving to-morrow. We didn't expect them until Friday

19

19

19 Miss Dalphin went home to see her family for Easter.

19

19 Easter Sunday and a sunny day. Chapel was quite crowded this morning. Went to children's service in P.M. + then to Annelise's for supper. She gave me among other things, a Hungarian cookbook

19

19

19

19

APRIL 22

19 We had loads of lilies sent to the Library from the Church and we both smell very springlike.

19

19

19

19

APRIL 23

19 Helen took us for a beautiful ride to Whip poor-will road and off on another dirt road which was lovely but hardly navigable. Then to Bryam Lake - taking our pictures with Dr. Brinkley

19

19 Peggy & J. came out to-night to spend the week-end. They brought their dog Nunca out with them to stay with us a little while. She is the best behaved dog I ever saw

19

19

xP.M.
19

19 Helen + Robin + I went to See "Follow the Fleet".

19 Rot. home also. Miss Dalphin let me have the evening off in honor of the
