Thurs OCTOBER 19

1972 Cold weather coming in - Snowing at 7: a.m. Ground noticeably white - nasty out-look. Went outside and cut the last of the tobacco plants. Lots of them this year. Had to shake the wet snow off of them.

Fri 1973 h. cut. Spent the day digging at post bases so they can be checked vertically. Things now slightly off - to say the least. Jim a.m. took posts up to Chester Woodwork on Theo. Friend are to have them planed.

Sat 1974 Virgie took sister up to hospital. Having trouble to keep things down - Getting dehydrated.

Sun 1975. Wet & damp. Had Dot Becker here for lunch. nice time together; John arrived late in after-noon. Glad to see him. Stayed overnight 83 yrs old!

Tues 1976 Catching up on chores.

Fri OCTOBER 20

1972 Nice day sun shines - frost at night. Picked a qt. of beans - the last. Covered the chard for protection.

Sat 1973 Cloudy most of the day - J. working on fence alignment - Exasperating project but he will continue come the morrow. Nettie over for lunch.

Sun 1974

Mon 1975 Overcast - still. John put up storm doors. Helped to take down sash in chicken house. We shined it up & gave a new outlook for old biddies. We had to leave around 2:30. I went to Kay Guenther's for dinner. Talked - Got home a few minutes after ten.

Wed 1976

Sat OCTOBER 21

1972 COLD (?) 28° heavy frost - this will do it: Sunflower took to the cellar last night. Working on pants. Got #8 planted - #7 was a real pain. But eventually got it in place. Had our last nubbin of corn - very tasty & sweet.

Sun 1973 Nice day - J. busy with fence posts. Making progress - thought the whole thing looks a mess to me - but J. seems to know what to do next. Am hoping he does! (Mets lost the world Series played out in California)

1974

1975 - Sunshine! bright & beautiful. 50° at 9: am.

1976
